

Connecting Volunteers through "the Pixie List": Volunteer Classifieds

WHAT?

An open source website, similar to Craig's List, allows live posting and protected communication between volunteers, girls and local community members. A troop might need an expert in cooking or chemistry; a teen girl may need supplies for her Gold Award Project, and a Service Unit might need extra volunteers to help for their event.

We expect parents, guardians and leaders to screen girl participation on this site.

SUCCESS STORIES:

"We are looking forward to becoming pen pal troops. The Pixie List is great service to have available. Thanks!"

"My ad was answered on the same day only hours later! This site is awesome!!! Thanks"

"I hoped to form an after-school Daisy troop but couldn't find leaders. After posting on the Pixie List, I was contacted by a former Girl Scout wanting to get involved with a troop. She is now a troop leader for 12 Daisies!"
